1. ZAŠTO HALICANUM??

Jedan od najznačajnijih poznatih trgovačkih putova iz doba Rimljana je tzv. jantarski put od sjeverne Italije (Aquileia), preko Ljubljane (Emona), Celja (Celeia), Ptuja (Poetovio), kroz briježno međuriječje Mure i Drave i riječnog prijelaza kod današnjeg naselja Sveti Martin na Muri (Halicanum), za Szombathely (Savaria), Petronell (mjesto između Beča i Bratislave)na Dunavu (Carnuntum) i prema sjeveru kroz Moravska vrata do Baltika. Drugi značajni strateški pravac koji je također prolazio preko rijeke Mure i nastavljao prema sjeveroistoku je onaj do Budimpešte (Aquincum) i drugih vojničkih logora na Dunavu. Ova dva pravca, koja su se odvajala upravo na području današnjeg Međimurja, predstavljala su važne žile kucavice rimskog imperija i sudbinski su utjecali na sva kasnija povijesna zbivanja koja su se događala na relaciji zapad-istok na svim područjima rimskog imperija. Upravo ovom razvijenom mrežom cesta Rimljani su ubrzali razmjenu dobara, ali i izravno intervenirali u prostoru. Ti putovi ujedno pokazuju pravce rimskih osvajanja.

Kultura Rimskog Carstva zahvaća Međimurje početkom I. st. naše ere. Najznačajniji antički lokalitet u Međimurju je Halicanum, rimski grad municipij, današnji Sveti Martin na Muri. Njega čine elementi antičke arhitekture, brojna keramika, rimski novac, glinene uljanice, fibule, u rasponu od 1. do 4. st. Nove ere.

Dakle dođite i sami otkrijte putove starih Rimljana…….

1. WHY HALICANUM??

One of the most famous trade routes from Roman times is the so-called Amber Road from northern Italy (Aquileia), via Ljubljana (Emona), Celje (Celeia), Ptuj (Poetovio) through hilly territory between the rivers Mura and Drava and river crossing near the present village Sveti Martin na Muri (Halicanum) for Szombathely (Savaria), Petronell (place between Vienna and Bratislava) on the Danube (Carnuntum) and northward through the Moravian gate to the Baltic. Another important strategic direction, which is also passed over the Mura and continued to the northeast, is the one to Budapest (Aquincum) and other military camps on the Danube. These two fields, which were separated just in the area today Medjimurje have been important lifeline of the Roman Empire and fatefully affected all further historically related events which occurred on the east-west route in all areas of the Roman Empire. Precisely this developed network of roads the Romans accelerate the exchange of goods, but also directly intervened in space. These paths also show the directions of the Roman conquest.

Culture of the Roman Empire engages Medjimurje in the early first century AD. It consists of elements of classical architecture, numerous pottery, Roman coins, clay oil lamps, fibula, ranging from 1 to 4 century

So come and discover yourself the ways of the ancient Romans.....
